Proposed Amendment of Rule 6.106 of the
Michigan Court Rules

AMENDMENT TO ORDER

On order of the Court, the order of October 17, 2006, is amended to correct a clerical error by adding the following proposed new text at the end of subrule 6.106(I)(2)(b):

If the defendant does not within that period satisfy the court that there was compliance with the conditions of release other than appearance or that compliance was impossible through no fault of the defendant, the court may continue the revocation order and enter judgment for the state or local unit of government against the defendant alone for an amount not to exceed the full amount of the bond, and costs of the court proceedings.

Staff comment: The additional language clarifies that a court may continue the revocation order and enter judgment against a defendant for failure to comply with the conditions of release or failure to satisfy the court that compliance with those conditions was impossible.

I, Corbin R. Davis, Clerk of the Michigan Supreme Court, certify that the foregoing is a true and complete copy of the order entered at the direction of the Court.
